CLASS HISTORY

Now that our days in Stuart High are O'er
Our teachers and books we will see no more,
Since we will call a spade a spade
We started out as little nuts in the first grade.

When the teachers saw us first
I declare we thought they would burst,
They threw up their hands in fright
Saying, "I'll be glad when they go home tonight."

Eight of the present Seniors started the first day
They vowed they would really make those teachers pay
During the second year Patsy and five other refugees joined our class
They soon found out that work they must if they wanted to pass.

The third and fourth grade each gave two
And then the fifth grade came into view
In the fifth we learned how to stand and sit
And we first heard the expression, "If the shoe fits you wear 't."

The sixth and seventh grade each gave one
From Red Bank and Patrick Springs came their favorite son
They were called by Charles and Kenny
And have proved to be not worth a penny.

From Central Academy came Lilian and Dot
And we've never been able to keep them apart.
With these loyal members we completed the eighth grade
So here's where Mrs. M. Hopkins came to our aid.

Beginning the ninth grade we started down the road to success
Still keeping our childish ways we must confess.
During this year we gained three new faces
Frank, Evelyn, and Mary Joyce were shown to their places.

During the tenth and eleventh we gained not one
Each of our teachers began wishing for a gun.
The Junior and Senior Banquet now came into view
Our days left in the eleventh were now very few.

In the twelfth came a boy named "Squirt"
We must confess he is not much of a flirt.
During this year we found there was more to school than fun
And that your homework must always be done.

Now that we have related our history
From the first through the twelfth
We would like to tell you just a few
More things about ourself.

To make the boys basketball team we think is an honor
Our Senior ball players must put on their black and orange armor.
To these boys we wish lots of luck
And hope along the way they never get stuck.

We think Frank Heath is quite a boy;
With the girls he's really a coy;
He's always so nice and quiet in school
His greatest pleasure is "shooting pool."

Ralph and Edward are two nice boys
Instead of bringing books to school they bring their toys.
They always manage to have lots of fun
Although Mr. Watins made them give up their squirt gun.

Now, old Thomas, he's seen most everywhere
From the teachers desk to the principal's chair.
In bookkeeping he always picks at Shirley Faye
And in any class you can hear him "I must say!"

Dud's new motto is "Cheaper by the dozen"
Whenever he speaks to a girl he tells that blonde it was only his cousin.
He's still a great friend so girls don't cry
Because now you know that Dud's not really shy.

Idallas, Charlene, Betty Mae, and Belle are the greatest of pals
And everyone seems to like these four gals.
We wish the best to Betty Lou Q. and Elizabeth Handy
And we think as future wives they'll make a dandy.

We must say something good about David Church
He's a good friend and we call him "Perch".
William Lee never has to look at a book
But at a pretty girl, he'll always look.

Betty Lou, Patsy, and Barbara will be dreading to say goodbye,
They are our three best guards and the pride of Stuart Hi.
Betty Sue and Betty Ann our history writers
Proved to be of value to their educators.

With Bill Simmions goes our good wishes
And we hope Betty Lou never makes him help wash the dishes.
Now Charles take our advice this is a new year
Everyone likes you and you'll graduate, never fear.

Now old Kenny, he's just a plague to the faculty,
But we must admit everything he does is with the greatest accuracy.
We can tell Kenny's going to be a man of the world,
From the way he looks at all the girls.

This is an old saying but still very true
Evelyn, lots of luck always to you.
Mary Joyce, we hope your future will always be sunny,
And why does Harry always call you "Honey"?

Every good thing must come to an end
And so our class history is almost over.
Maybe someday our names will be among the greatest of men,
And we can spend the rest of our days in clover.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the years drift swiftly by, there are always pleasant memories of the past. At the top of the heap are the memories of the Class of '53 and the good times we had together. The other day, I was thinking of all my classmates so I decided to find out just what they are doing here in 1963.

Some of my friends I hear about in the news every day. The whole sports world is talking about the records Dud Clark set this year in his Darlyne Rocket V-16 at Indianapolis.

David Church is designing new type jet and rocket planes for the Air Force.

The great comedian, Kenny Cain, stole the show in the Broadway comedy hit "Idiot's Delight."

The most popular hillbilly singer of radio, T. V., and the juke boxes is Charlene Roberson.

Coach Donald "Squirt" Jones of N. C. State is expecting another championship basketball team.

I decided to take a day off from my job as confidential secretary to the Governor of Virginia in order to journey back to Stuart to find out about the rest of the gang.

As I stepped off the bus at Stuart, a big truck pulled up beside me.

"How about a ride, Lillian?" the driver called.

When I turned around, I saw Thomas Inmon, who I learned was owner of Inmon Nation-Wide Trucking, Inc.

I told Thomas to drop me off at a good restaurant, so he took me to a new one on Main Street. To my surprise, there was Elizabeth Handy, as quiet as ever, doing a fine job serving the most delicious meals in town. After talking for some time, I found out that she had the low-down about all the Seniors of '53.

Our friend Charles Flippin had become moderately rich as owner and operator of Flippin & Floppin Grocery Store, Flip-over-Bar-B-Q, and the new Super Service Center.

Bill Simmons and his wife, the former Betty Lou Collins, are living on a big farm near Stuart. They are bringing up a family, which they hope will become great farmers and basketball players.

Ralph Beasley was described to me as being very large (250 lbs.) He appears to be a very prosperous candy merchant, although it seems that he must have eaten an enormous quantity of his profits.

Frank Heath is running a burlesque show which is touring the country. He hasn't married yet, because he can't figure out which of his chorus girls he likes best.

Residing near Stuart is Idallas Holt, being a faithful and loving wife to her husband, Admiral Curry.

Betty Mae Fain, after finishing her nurse's training at Mt. Airy, went to Lewis-Gale Hospital in Roanoke. She has now worked herself up to the position as head nurse.

Barbara Willard went to college and got her Masters degree. She is now visiting teacher in the Patrick County School system.

Patsy Goard is enjoying her job as Secretary to the President. (That is, secretary to the President of the Y. M. C. A.)

Betty Sue Martin married soon after finishing high school, but she didn't let that interfere with her career as a hair stylist in New York.

Betty Lou Quesinberry married her former boss and is now living in North Carolina.

We thought Edward Gray was foolish when he took so much time off from school to work his tobacco, but it paid off. He now owns Gray Tobacco Co. (Warehouses No. 1 and No. 2 at Five Forks, Virginia.)

Mary Joyce Fields lived in Stuart for three years and then returned to Washington where she is now the secretary of the Secretary-of-the-Army.

Evelyn Blaylock, who was always so studious, got her Ph. D. and is now Dean of Women at V. P. I.

Dorothy Hughes stayed at home for a few years and then married a diplomat. Now, she is traveling all over Europe.

Betty Ann Stigall, they say, is chief stewardess of the American Airlines. After flying around the country and getting acquainted with all the pilots, she finally married a submarine captain.

Belle Hopkins started out in the newspaper business with the Enterprise. She worked her way up and she is soon going to start a new column in the Baltimore Sun.

All the Class of '53 seem to be doing well or better except William Lee Ross. He started out with a good job but his employer got tired of his awful jokes and fired him. The last they heard of him he was traveling on the best trains—as a hobo. Some say his luck has become even worse since then.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We of the Senior Class of 1952-53, in hope that we will not be forgotten, bequeath the following things of our belongings, being sound in health, body and mind. We leave you these few tokens of gratitude.

To Mr. Law, our Superintendent of Schools, we leave our appreciation for his kindness and co-operation.

To Mr. Watkins, we will our admiration and thanks for the assistance and understanding he has shown us during our most important year.

To Mrs. Hazelwood, we leave a kind attentive class, that has been well-trained so she won't have to raise her voice to keep things going.

To Mr. Moir, we leave a good group of boys and our hopes for a good basketball team.

To Mrs. Powell, we leave the memories of all the wonderful times we had during our Junior year.

We leave to Mrs. Gertrude Hopkins a quiet Algebra Class.

To Mrs. Mildred Hopkins, we leave our appreciation for the wonderful guidance she has given the Seniors.

To Miss Mitchell, we leave all the jobs that she usually gets stuck with.

To Mr. Weaver, we would like to leave another industrious Chemistry Class, that does experiments all the time and never studies the textbook.

To Mrs. Wood, we would like to leave a room in the high school building.

To Mrs. Moore, we leave a new set of tables and chairs to replace the ones the Seniors tore up.

To Mrs. Mooney, we leave an assistant to help her keep the doors open at lunch.

To Mrs. McAlexander, we would like to leave a helper because she has to do too much for just one teacher.

To Mr. Williams, we leave a ninth grade girls agriculture class.

To Betty Sue Hill, we leave a car so she can go to town any time.

To Foster, we leave a load of coal, so there will be heat in the Senior room.

Betty Lou Quesinberry leaves her ability to be neat and quiet to Fern Soyars.

Mary Joyce Fields leaves her back seat to Erlene Turner.

To Margaret Puckett, Betty Ann leaves her ability to play basketball.

Charlene leaves to Marie Soyars and Nancy Gunter her gift of gab.

Dorothy Hughes leaves Rebecca some hints on how to be slim and trim.

Dud Clark leaves his place as teacher's pet to William Thompson.

Kenneth Cain leaves his place as class clown to Kenneth Goard.

Thomas leaves to Shirley Faye some of his height and ability to draw.

To Bobby Hall, Edward Gray leaves his ability to miss school.

"Squirt" Jones leaves Shirley Willard, although he hates to.

Betty Mae Fain leaves her list of Critz boys to Betty Jean Williams.

To William and Claudette, Bill and Betty Lou leave the Senior room at lunch.

Charles Flippin leaves his position at center on the basketball team to Sidney Spahr.

Frank Heath leaves his ability to flirt to Betty Foley.

Barbara leaves sister Betty her ability to play basketball.

To John Clark, William Lee leaves his ability to take a joke.

Belle leaves to Margaret what she doesn't learn this year as a senior.

Betty Sue leaves Darlyne her ability to flash jewelry.

Mary Ruth inherits Patsy Goard's ability to giggle and laugh.

To Bruce Moorefield, David leaves his ability to get along with people.

Evelyn leaves her ability to read and study to Dorothy Martin and Ruth Shockley.

Ralph Beasley leaves his ability to be quiet to Edna and Vera Williams.

Betty Sue and Idallas leave to Elva and Thelma their front seats so Mrs. Hazelwood can tell them apart.

Lillian Williams leaves her ability to make good grades to Carolyn Ray.

Bill leaves his place in F.F.A. to Harold Hopkins.

Elizabeth Handy leaves her Royal typewriter to Allie Mae Rogers.

Betty Lou Collins leaves her title as "Miss Stuart Hi" to any Junior, are you interested Annie Ruth?

Idallas leaves her place on the JEB Staff to Mary Margaret.

"WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF"

What would happen if Edward Gray had to come to school at least two days a week?
What would happen if William Lee Ross didn't get disturbed in bookkeeping?
What would happen if Kenneth Cain lost his gift of gab?
What would happen if Patsy Goard couldn't see her "Hall of Fame" for a month?
What would happen if the seniors did something without planning it?
What would happen if David Church wasn't very "Handy" any more?
What would happen if Donald Jones came to school on Monday?
What would happen if Bill Simmons knew biology?
What would happen if Frank Heath paid attention in class?
What would happen if Ralph Beasley got to bookkeeping on time?
What would happen if Betty Ann Stigall wasn't quite in study hall?
What would happen if Belle Hopkins couldn't keep the score at ball games?
What would happen if Charlene Roberson had to walk to school?
What would happen if Evelyn Blaylock would misbehave in class?
What would happen if Barbara Willard had a "steady"?
What would happen if Betty Lou Collins didn't have a ride home after work?
What would happen if Betty Mae Fain was heard once in class?
What would happen if Dud Clark got along with "all" his girls?
What would happen if Elizabeth Handy couldn't sit in the front seat?
What would happen if Betty Lou Quisinberry couldn't go with North Carolina boys?
What would happen if Mary Joyce Fields couldn't ride in a Chevrolet pickup?
What would happen if Idallas Holt couldn't come to ball games?
What would happen if Betty Sue Martin could make up her mind?
What would happen if Dorothy Hughes decided to go to work in the afternoon for Arko?
What would happen if Lillian Williams won the prize for outstanding D. A. R.?
What would happen if the tenth grade couldn't put paper and apple cores in the seniors desks?
What would happen if Charles Flippin decided to catch up on his "lost" sleep?
What would happen if Thomas Inmon couldn't aggravate teachers and students?
What would happen if Mr. Moir's team won State Championship?
What would happen if Mr. Watkins didn't have to watch the senior boys?
What would happen if Betty Sue Hill had a motor bike to carry absentee slips around on?
What would happen if Mrs. Mildred Hopkins couldn't teach the ninth grade?
What would happen if Mrs. Gertrude Hopkins had a geometry class?
What would happen if Mr. Williams didn't have the F.F.A. boys?
What would happen if Miss Mitchell lost her Jewel-ry?
What would happen if Mrs. Hazelwood found all the seniors in their seat by the second bell and didn't have to tell them the lesson but three times?
What would happen if Miss McAlexander couldn't teach the seniors?
What would happen if Mrs. Powell didn't have a Glee Club?
What would happen if Mr. Weaver couldn't perfume the building during sixth period?
What would happen if Mrs. Moore had a quiet study hall?
What would happen if Mrs. Wood didn't have a new Mercury to ride to school?
What would happen if Mrs. Mooney kept all the doors open at lunch?
